Abstract:

In recent years, multiplier ideals have emerged as very important tools for the study of higher dimensional algebraic varieties. In this talk I will present an application of multiplier ideals to local algebra. Specifically, I’ll discuss a rather surprising result concerning the symbolic powers of radical ideals in a smooth variety. (The talk however will be geometric rather than algebraic in nature.)